

The National Association of Tower Erectors SCHOLARSHIP

DETAILS

Award: The National Association of Tower Erectors Scholarship

Value: Scholarships are valued at up to $2,500 each and are renewable annually (for up to four years) provided academic criteria are met.

Closing Date for Applications: April 15, 2010

Award Announcement: July 1, 2010

Guidelines:

- The scholarship will supplement a financial aid package -- not substitute for aid -- received from an institution.
- Scholarship awards will be made payable to the school on behalf of the student and are intended to supplement, rather than substitute for, aid received from an institution.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Student must be a legal dependant of a permanently disabled or deceased employee of a current NATE member company in good standing;
- The individual must be a high school graduate or equivalent and must be accepted as a full-time student to an accredited college or technical school to receive the scholarship; and
- The candidate must be nominated by a current NATE member in good standing.

Application:

Applicants must submit the following documents for NATE scholarship consideration:

- Application form;
- Essay describing why you feel the NATE Scholarship will help you achieve your goals. (No more than two pages double-spaced);
- High school transcript;
- Letter of recommendation from a teacher or other school official;
- Letter of acceptance from the college or technical school you will be attending;
- Letter of nomination from current NATE member company in good standing;
- There will be a telephone interview with members of the Scholarship Committee; and
- Is there anything else you want us to know about you?

All of the above items are to be submitted in a single envelope, and must be received in the NATE office no later than April 15, 2010.
